

Introduction to Hand Appliqué Workshop with Rose Cunningham

5, 12, 19, and 26 November 2022

Rose Cunningham is a retired home economics teacher with a particular interest in textiles. She has been practising her appliqué skills since the arrival of her first grandson 16 years ago when her daughter ordered a decorated quilt. The workshop is run over the course of four sessions and will provide participants with the skills and the materials to complete simple appliqué items.
