Acrylic paint : A little house on the prairie.

9am – 12pm

In this class we will be painting a very sweet little house on the hill side with a beautiful landscape and flowers. We will be making the landscape have depth with distance in the painting. There will be flowers in the foreground.

This painting would look great on a canvas so if you would like, please bring an A3 size canvas or block canvas. Or I can provide good quality paper.
