Acrylic Painting : A Snow Rabbit looking at the winter sky
9am — 12pm

For this Christmas Art class we are painting a very cute Rabbit looking up at the snow falling on a winters night. We will be using acrylic paint, a stencil for the moon, clear glitter on the snow and of course painting snow falling on the Rabbit. The students can paint the scarf in any style, colour or pattern.

Students can dress up a bit Christmasy if they feel like it.

Bookings are open - get in quick.

*These classes are fun and relaxing. The students can bring a snack with them during these sessions and a water bottle.
*Friends are also welcome to join even if they don't attend during term! Bring a friend and have fun together

Keep being Creative, it's good for your soul.
